In May, Oconto Electric Cooperative held its 16th Annual Electric Safety Poster Contest. The contest was open to students in third, fourth and fifth grade students. This year's winning posters were submitted by fourth and fifth grade students, as determined by all OEC employees who voted for the winners after finalists were determined by some very diligent OEC personnel. Posters were (276601) judged on safety messaging, creativity and neatness. Each winner's classroom was treated to a pizza party, hosted by OEC employees. Congratulations to all the winners and participants! Below is a photo of Byron Nolde (left) and Ken Clausen (right), OEC employees making their "picks" for the contest winners.

CAPITAL CREDITS TO BE PAID

Capital Credits are earned by every member based on how much power was consumed during the year. The money comes from margins that OEC generates from that year. Although the money is allocated to the members, the co-op's board of directors makes the decision when the money is to actually be paid out. Typically, OEC pays out capital credits for the oldest year, which is 20 years ago.

This year OEC will be paying out capital credits from 1996. If you have capital credits of less than $25 you will receive a credit on your electric bill. If it is $25 or more, you will receive a check in August. If you would like to pick up your check at the Member Appreciation Picnic on Saturday, Aug. 6, you can do that. Any checks that are not picked up at the picnic will be mailed the following week.

OEC INSIGHT

Two OEC directors recently attained NRECA's Director Gold credentials. To achieve this milestone of training in the electric cooperative arena, Tony Wagner and Dave Hischke first were required to complete the Credentialed Cooperative Director program as well as the Board Leadership Certification curriculum prior to tackling the even more advanced Director Gold Program. Congratulations, Dave and Tony, and thank you for advancing your knowledge and leadership skills for the benefit of all OEC members and employees!

HIDDEN ACCOUNT NUMBERS

Oconto Electric Cooperative hides two account numbers in the local pages of the Wisconsin Energy Cooperative News each month. If you spot your account number, call our office before you receive the next issue, and OEC will give you a $15 credit on your electric bill or a $25 credit if you have a load management receiver. The June account numbers (48602) belonged to Christine Wilinski, Pulaski, and Katharine Patterson, Little Suamico.
